Grab it now to see who will survive the night!

The first edition was called “the most valuable film reference in several years” by Library Journal. The new edition published in hardcover in 2001 includes more than 670 entries. The current work is a paperback reprint of that edition. Each entry contains a mini-essay that defines the topic, followed by a chronological list of representative films. From the Abominable Snowman to Zorro, this encyclopedia provides film scholars and fans with an easy-to-use reference for researching film themes or tracking down obscure movies on subjects such as suspended animation, viral epidemics, robots, submarines, reincarnation, ventriloquists and the Olympics (“Excellent” said Cult Movies). The volume also contains an extensive list of film characters and series, including B-movie detectives, Western heroes, made-for-television film series, and foreign film heroes and villains.

RUN FOR YOUR LIFE! There is a secret concealed deep beneath the frozen crust of ice and snow at the foot of the Endicott Mountain Range, just within the Gates of the Arctic National Park in Alaska. Here, the United States Government has a secret test site where it developed, tested, and finally unleashed an unimaginable horror-The Xanadu Project. Their plan is to bring a savior to the global community- the USA. But the real horror of this project unfolds in the enormous underground facility where behavioral scientists learn to manipulate the seven deadly sins hidden deep within the core of the human brain. The vehicle they choose to administer this secret project is utterly benign. They choose something everyone has, loves and will pay top price for the very best. The horror is delivered through the nation's sacred athletic shoes. The shoes promise to make each wearer's life better. They can make the wearer taller, thinner and richer. But, as the shoes deliver on their promise, they also deliver something hideous. Something unsuspected by the millions of innocent owners ... until it's too late. And now, the very fate of the world rests in the hands of two people-one operating under the threat of an inoperable brain tumor and the other a frightened, phobia-choked novice detective. Will they manage to save the world from the apocalyptic fury of the Xanadu Project? ABOUT THE AUTHOR: Sherry's passion for writing has been a lifelong journey full of dark slippery roads which has produced an eclectic jumble of novels. She lives with her family in the beautiful Great Lakes region of the Midwest. When not writing and reading she is an avid tropical landscape artist, which depicts the only season not offered in the Midwest.
